EDWARD SCHENCK,

AUCTIONEER

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and in case of dispute between bidders, the lot in dispute to be immediately put up and re-sold.
2. Buyers to give their names and addresses, and, if required, to pay down a cash deposit, or the entire purchase money, in default of which the lot or lots so bought to be immediately put up and re-sold.
3. The buyer to pay the balance of the purchase-money in cash at the office of the auctioneer, or to otherwise settle to the auctioneer's satisfaction within three days after the sale ends, and the buyer to remove the goods at his own expense and risk within twenty-four hours after the payment of the bill, or storage will be charged. The auctioneer in no case holds himself responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed after they are struck down; they will remain at the buyer's sole risk.
4. No sale of an article to be set aside on account of any faults or any error in description—the undersigned not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in any lot, and making no warranty whatever. All articles are on public view one or more days, and are sold just as they are, without recourse.
5. Buyers to pay for all lots purchased in full before any one or more lots will be delivered.
6. No article will be taken off the bill of the buyer under any circumstance. The Record of the Sale, kept by the auctioneer's clerk—together with the catalogue kept by the auctioneer—in all cases to be taken by the buyer as absolute and final in all disputes.
7. Lots purchased will not be transferred from the bill of the buyer to another person until such lots are paid for in full, or a deposit made on each bill of at least 25 per cent.
8. Should a buyer wish a lot sold over for his account, the lot must first be paid for in full. A commission will be charged by the auctioneer, the loss or gain to be for the account of the buyer.
9. To prevent inaccuracy any inconvenience, no lot can on any account be removed during the hours of sale.
10. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.

EDWARD SCHENCK.
